From TV writing and production, to fiction and political messaging, I've had a varied creative career. As a producer I've worked from concept through post production and have scripted shows for Hulu, NBC, CBS, PBS, Netflix, AMC, ABC Family, Nickelodeon, Lifetime, Disney and Comedy Central. For the 2018 midterms, I developed and wrote presentations and rapid response messaging for Congressional lawmakers and candidates. I've published a humor book, several short stories and recently finished my first novel.
